This mechanism provides for adequate safeguards against victimization of directors and employees to avail the mechanism and also provides for direct access to the chairman of the Audit Committee in appropriate cases. All the directors and employees of the Company are eligible to make Protected Disclosure under this Policy in relation to the matters concerning the Company.

All complaints in connection with sexual harassment of women at workplace will be handled by internal complaints committee constituted as per the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013 and any rules made thereunder, each as amended.

4. REPORTING MECHANISM & DISCIPLINARY ACTION

- a) A director or employee who wishes to use vigil mechanism may report the protected disclosure in writing to Company Secretary & Compliance Officer as soon as possible, not later than 30 days after he/she becomes aware of the same.
- b) The Protected Disclosure should be submitted under a covering letter signed by the Whistle Blower in a closed and secured envelop either by email or at the address of registered office of the Company.
- c) Protected Disclosure can also be made, at the option of the Whistle-blower, to their line manager or respective business HR head. The respective line manager or HR head shall promptly forward such Protected Disclosure to the Chairperson of the Audit Committee for further action.
- d) All Protected Disclosure under this Policy will be promptly forwarded to Audit Committee chairman and appropriate steps will be taken, under his direction, for investigation of such matter under disciplinary mechanism for the time being in force. All the information disclosed during the investigation will remain confidential, except as necessary to conduct the investigation. Everyone working for or with the Company has a duty to cooperate in the investigation. Failure to cooperate in an investigation, or deliberately providing false information during an investigation, can be the basis for disciplinary action, including termination of employment.
- e) If, at the conclusion of its investigation, the Company determines that a violation has occurred, the Company will take effective remedial action which inter alia includes disciplinary action including termination from service, subject to the approval of Audit Committee chairman. Reasonable and necessary steps will also be taken to prevent any further violations of Company policy.

5. Investigation

- a) All Protected Disclosures reported under this Policy will, at the option of the Chairperson of audit committee, be investigated by them.
- b) The Audit Committee, shall take all steps to keep the identity of the Accused confidential. Accused shall have a duty to co-operate during investigation to the extent that such co-operation will not compromise self-incrimination protections available under the applicable laws.
- c) Accused have a responsibility not to interfere with the investigation. Evidence shall not be withheld, destroyed or tampered with, and witnesses shall not be influenced, coached, threatened or intimidated by the Accused. Unless there are compelling reasons not to do so, Accused will be given the opportunity to respond to material findings contained in an investigation report.
- d) The Company will ensure that the investigation is conducted in a fair and efficient

Investigation may get extended if the Investigators, in their reasonable opinion, conclude that they require extra time to complete the investigation.

- e) Technical and other resources may be drawn upon as necessary to augment the investigation. Investigators have a duty of fairness, objectivity, thoroughness, ethical behaviour, and observance of legal and professional standards.
- f) Investigations will be initiated only after a preliminary review, which establishes that:
 - i. The alleged act constitutes an improper or unethical activity or conduct, and
 - ii. Either the allegation is supported by information specific enough to be investigated or matters that do not meet this standard may be worthy of management review, but investigation itself should not be undertaken as an investigation of an improper or unethical activity.

5. PROTECTION OF WHISTLE-BLOWERS

If a Whistle Blower does provide his or her name when making a Protected Disclosure, the Company will treat as confidential the identity of the Whistle Blower and the fact that a Protected Disclosure has been made, except as otherwise required by law and to the extent possible while allowing an investigation to proceed. A Whistle Blower may make a Protected Disclosure without fear of retaliation or intimidation.

6. ROLE OF AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee is responsible for supervising the development and implementation of this Policy. The Audit Committee shall periodically review the Policy to consider whether amendments are necessary, and, if so, it shall communicate any such amendments to all employees as soon as possible.

7. SECRECY/CONFIDENTIALITY

Everyone involved in the investigation process, including Whistle Blower(s) shall:

- a) maintain complete confidentiality/secretcy of the matter;
- b) not to discuss the matter in any informal/social gatherings/meetings;
- c) discuss only to the extent or with the persons required for the purpose of completing the process and investigations;
- d) not to keep the papers unattended anywhere at any time;
- e) keep the electronic mails/files under password.

If anyone is found not complying with the above, he/she shall be held liable for such disciplinary action as is considered fit.

8. REVIEW / AMENDMENT

The Board can amend this Policy, as and when deemed fit.

9. EFFECTIVE DATE

This policy shall be effective from 09th November 2023.
